COLIN MCKEAND

Colin McKeand, known as "Scotland's Mister Networking" is one of Scotland's leading business networking skills trainers, advisor and sought after speaker. During this relaxed fun, but business focused interactive session, you will get the opportunity to meet like-minded people, move around at your own pace, plus promote what you do. You will also get the chance practices the Top Tips that you will learn from Colin.

CLUBFIVE55

ClubFIVE55 hosts the busiest early evening events in over 16 cities across the UK. All of their events held in first class venues, featuring the UK's only "Horseshoe networking" where you will see, hear, and pitch to all in the room.

BUSINESS IS - WINE

Business Is - Women In Networking Edinburgh are delighted to present a collaborative networking event aimed at promoting women in business. If you are a woman running your own business and you genuinely believe that strong connections with other amazing entrepreneurs will catapult your business to success then this is the event for you.

LIQUID ACADEMY

A School Of Hospitality, events solutions and brand consultancy firm based in the UK. Liquid Academy will be demonstrating cocktail flaring and more during their session!

CONNECTED

ConnectED is an established networking event in Edinburgh. We care about human connections as well as business success. In this session we will cover practical ways to make better connections at networking events as well as strategies to help those that find networking difficult or daunting. How do you join a conversation? or get people to come to you? What are good conversation topics? How to ask interesting questions (getting beyond 'what do you do?')? How to answer well? And of course, how to exit. This will be a lighthearted and friendly introduction to networking with plenty of opportunities to strengthen your network.

CO-FOUNDERSLAB

Our goal is to help 10+ Startups in Edinburgh establish strong founding teams that are able to gain traction, raise investment and build a successful company that makes a difference to millions of lives. If you are looking for like-minded professionals, then look no further!

E2N

E2N a Natwest networking group are hosting a session during the Venue & PA Expo Scotland. This is a very relaxed networking event. Initially there will be short talks from guests such as Evelyn Doyle, followed by a chance to interact with all attendees and build contacts in a casual networking format.
